Charge Degree T	Charge Level FELONY	General Offense Code KIDNAP-FALSE IMPRISONMENT
Charge Description ADULT

Probable Cause

Before Me, the undersigned authority personally appeared J. BLOOM 677 who being duly sworn, alleges, on information and belief, that on the 17 day of JANUARY 2025 in Marion County, Florida the defendant did:

Commit the offense of FALSE IMPRISONMENT OF AN ADULT to wit:

On 01/17/2025, I responded to 30900 SE 96th Lane in reference to a physical disturbance.

Upon my arrival, I made contact with the defendant, Richard Fritzinger, and his family. Upon speaking with them, they advised that a tow truck driver forcefully grabbed the defendant and threatened to cut him with a knife when all he did was ask the tow truck driver what his name was.

Upon making contact with the victim, Jakara Wilson, she advised that while making a grocery delivery for Kroger, she became stuck due to the loose, sandy road. Due to being in a company vehicle, the victim is required to request a professional tow. While stuck in the sand, she was approached by the defendant who offered to tow her out of the sand for $100. She declined the offer and rolled up her window. Once the tow truck driver arrived in his Jeep, the defendant stepped in front of the Kroger vehicle and refused to move from the way of the tow truck driver so that he could pull the vehicle out. The only way for the victim to leave the scene would be for the tow truck driver to connect his tow straps and move her. Although the defendant continuously refused the move out of the way, the tow truck driver was able to get one strap on the vehicle. The defendant took off the tow strap and threw it at him striking the tow truck driver in the nose with the hook of the strap causing bleeding. The tow truck driver grabbed the defendant by his shoulders and moved him out of the way for a second and went to hook the strap back up at which time the defendant began to kick him. The family of the defendant arrived on scene and began to yell at the tow truck driver due to him yelling at the defendant. The defendant's grandson started a physical altercation. Once the altercation was over and the parties separated, they called law enforcement. The victim recorded a video of this entire incident which was reviewed on scene and showed her story to be consistent.

In the video, during the physical altercation between the tow truck driver, defendant's grandson, and defendant, the tow truck driver is seen pushing down the grandson and restraining him while asking him if he's done fighting. Once the defendant began to strike the driver, he pushed him down, backed away from the altercation and told them that he will use his knife if he is attacked again. The tow truck driver continued backing away while making this statement. The defendant then went right back in front of the Kroger truck to continue to contain the victim in the same spot.

Post Miranda, the defendant stated that this incident would have been avoided if the tow truck driver provided his name due to being on "private property". He advised that he did stand in front of the truck and would not allow him to hook up to the Kroger truck.

The defendant was placed under arrest for falsely imprisoning the victim due to stopping her only way of leaving. The victim was unable to step out of the vehicle due to not feeling safe because of the physical altercation.

The defendant was transported to the Marion County Jail without incident.
