APPLICATION FOR STATEMENT OF CHARGES (CONTINUED)

July 18th I was invited to a house party with my fellow graduates. Everything was okay at first. I arrived at 10:00 pm and lost my phone 5-10 minutes after arriving. From 10:00 pm until 12:00 am, I searched the property for my phone. I ended up retrieving the phone the next day. I was inebriated laying on the table inside his garage unconscious of my self and Camden decided to repeatedly assault me on my face as I'm unresponsive I was shown the video the night after because my friend [REDACTED] got me home and I was passed out. I went back to the house to get my car and phone and spoke with Camden Mom and showed her the video. I let her know that I found my phone after letting me into their home. I said I'm going press charges and get police involved. She asked me nicely to not too but I left there.

APPLICATION FOR STATEMENT OF CHARGES (CONTINUED)

In the video shows my friend who had come to take me home safely spot me on the table being hit on my head repeatedly by Camden and ran over and slapped him to get him off me. The video continues after the altercation Camden said who are you and [REDACTED] said why are you hitting him that's my job I'm getting him home and everything was good after he took me to car and left. I [REDACTED] can only remember up to the point of looking for my phone then passing out next thing I wake up at [REDACTED] House and they relayed what happened and showed me the video. Camden had no reason to assault a man that was conscious laying down I felt like there is many other ways to handle it. But he choose to hit me over my head. There was a big crowd around the garage watching it all play out and people saying stop until [REDACTED] turned me.
